

Commitment to Freshness

From our sauces to our sides, everything we have to offer is home-made using only the freshest ingredients. As supporters of local agriculture, we strive to incorporate local products into our dishes, providing you with fresh, quality food at an affordable price.

Our chicken comes from a secret family recipe, is rubbed and slow cooked on a rotisserie resulting in a juicy, flavorful product. Our pulled pork is smoked, hand pulled, and dressed with our signature, homemade BBQ sauce.

2012 CATERING MENU

315-498-5525

Our family has been cooking chicken and hosting barbeques for over ten years now. What started out as catering to just family and friends quickly spread to private events and public barbeques, and the rave reviews we've received throughout the years have kept us cooking ever since. While our barbeque menu is a big part of our repertoire, we offer a variety of options and are more than willing to work with you to meet your needs. So whether your looking for some home-style barbeque, or for something a bit more upscale, give us a call and we'll get something cookin' !
